Law Practice

Law Practice:

Tab Wood joined Cosgrave in 2011. He specializes in general liability and commercial litigation.

During law school, Tab worked for the Civil Enforcement Division of the Oregon Department of Justice. As part of his coursework, he completed a business law externship with Banfield: The Pet Hospital and participated in the University's prosecution clinic, working for the District Attorney's Office of Lane County. Tab served as a Staff and Associate Editor for the Oregon Law Review and as the Chair of the University of Oregon Pro Bono Executive Board. He also competed at the regional and national levels of the American Bar Association's Negotiation Competition. In 2010 Tab worked at Cosgrave as a summer associate.
